HomeConnect Announces New Contract with Maronda Homes

Large national builder signs agreement to use HomeConnect Service

Bridgeville, PA– October 17, 2003 – HomeConnect, an organization that eases the burden of moving for new homeowners by coordinating the installation of all utility, telephone and video services, has announced that Maronda Homes, a large national homebuilder, has signed an agreement to use HomeConnect

“We are very proud to have Maronda as a client” states Rick Metzinger, General Manager of HomeConnect. “They readily understand the importance of delivering an excellent product and we look forward to working closely with them to enhance the value they already provide to their customers”

Ron Wolf, President of Maronda Homes stated, “We are constantly looking for new opportunities to satisfy our customers and HomeConnect offers us the ability to dramatically enhance our clients experience by eliminating a major source of frustration. We firmly believe that HomeConnect fills a void that has long existed in the market.”

HomeConnect eliminates one of the largest irritations of new homeowners: the connection of telephone, Internet, video and utility services. The service, HomeConnect, is marketed through builders and Realtors nationwide. The service eliminates the frustration of moving and provides a single source of information for the installation of all utilities including gas, electric, telephone, video, security services and Internet.
